

We're hiring a fulltime, seasonal Marine and Technology Education
Assistant

Responsibilities include: Explaining educational material and interactive displays that will feature aspects of local fisheries, as well as, interacting with the public by staffing the "Discovery Wharf" visitors center.

Must possess excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to interact positively with children and adults in a public educational setting. A working knowledge of lobstering and other fisheries current on the coast of Maine is preferred but training and familiarization is available. A current understanding and use of technology, troubleshooting of computer hardware, networks and internet based software is essential. Must have reliable transportation.

40 hours per week with negotiable $15 per hour. Housing available. Must be a minimum of 18 years of age. June 3, 2019, through October 15, 2019 (some flexibility).

Please send cover letter, résumé, and three professional references to: Chelsea Kondratowicz, Administrative Assistant, ckondratowicz@coastalfisheries.org, (207) 367-2708, by March 1, 2019.