

Island Ad-Vantages

THE VIEW FROM ATLANTIC AVENUE

We are thankful for the fishermen who steam away at dawn to harvest food, and feed the world that we all depend upon We are thankful for the stern men and those who work the dock tireless in their toils at all hours of the clock
We are thankful for the teachers, and those who drive the bus the janitors and road workers who fix the roads for us We are thankful for the firemen and clerks down at the store the bakers and the baristas who always bring us more The nurses, the cooks, the bankers too who handle all the cash the farmers and the gardeners and the men who move the trash We're thankful for our partners that will collaborate to sustain what you need to fish, even lobster bait Most of all we're thankful for this place we call our home with those we love around us and those with whom we roam

Happy Thanksgiving from all of us at MCCF
